

Are You Considering a Career in Occupational Therapy?

Please Register on our Open Event

16th October 2023
9.00am to 12.00pm

Venue:
Northern General Hospital, Herries Road,
Sheffield, S5 7AU

Occupational Therapists from Sheffield Teaching Hospitals will be holding an Open event for people who are looking at Occupational Therapy as a career. This will provide an opportunity to meet with therapists who work in a hospital or community, discuss the work they do and answer any questions you may have.

Timetable of the event

9.00 am	Registration
9.15 am	Welcome and Introductions
9.25 am	Presentation: Head of Occupational Therapy, Sheffield Teaching Hospitals
10.00 am	Presentation: Sheffield Hallam University Occupational Therapy
10.30 am	Coffee break
10.45 am	Meet the Occupational Therapists
11.30 am	Presentation: My Career in Occupational Therapy
11.50 am	Summary
12.00 noon	Close

After the coffee break you will have the opportunity to meet Occupational Therapists, look at equipment used by them and possibly take part in practical demonstrations. There will be information posters to view, and also hand outs available for you to take away. The event will be rounded off with a talk from an Occupational Therapist about their experiences at University and their career in the NHS.
